SPAR ANNOUNCES AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAMS REGISTRATION

SHREVEPORT, LA, August 13, 2010: Shreveport Public Assembly and Recreation (SPAR) is now accepting registration for its free After School Programs for kids ages 6-11 and teens ages 12 - 17. The after-school programs are offered at each of SPAR's 15 neighborhood community centers.

The After School Programs are geared toward offering a safe, secure environment and helping the student improve both academically and socially. Professional instructors offer dance, fitness, tennis, weightlifting, soccer and art instruction for the energetic youth. Snacks are provided along with homework assistance. Each center has computers, as well as books and study aids.

The programs run Monday - Friday from 3:00 - 6:00pm. The youth should arrive at the centers by 3:30pm and remain until at 5:30pm to preclude disruption of scheduled activities. The programs run concurrently with the Caddo Parish school year. There are special camps held during school breaks for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. The programs are open to Charter school students in addition to Caddo Parish school students.

Participation is free. However, registration is required. Space is limited. Admission on a first come, first served basis. Interested parties should immediately call or visit their neighborhood community center or visit www.mySPAR.org for centers' addresses, telephone numbers and registration forms.
